“MOTTO OF NCC”

UNITY AND DISCIPLINE

'AIMS' OF NATIONAL CADET CORPS.

- ❑ To develop qualities of Character, courage, comradeship, discipline, leadership, secular outlook, spirit of adventure, sportsmanship and ideal of selfless service among the youth to make them useful citizens.
- ❑ To create as human resources organized, trained and motivated youth, to provide leadership in all walks of life, including in armed forces and always available for the services of Nation.

BRIEF HISTORY

The NCC is voluntary organization in India. It is an organization which trains young people on military subjects. Its motto is “UNITY AND DISCIPLINE” It was born out of British “University Officers Training” in 1925. The UOTC was to provide potential officers material to the armed forces. In Independent India the NCC committee was setup under Pt. Kunzru and The NCC Act was passed in parliament on the 16th April 1948.
